

THE TRADITION OF GIVING

Few things remain constant in our fast paced lives. Thrown into an ever changing dynamic marketplace, we crave the familiar and long for the feeling of home, family, country, and tradition. For many businesses it is a difficult path to manage in an atmosphere where consistency and tradition are valued, but where change and fashion dictate the course.

Windsor Jewelers has been able to navigate this path successfully for over twenty years by consistently offering our clients outstanding service, exceptional value, and uncompromising quality. We remain committed to offering the finest jewelry and timepieces, manufactured to the utmost standards, from the most highly regarded designers in the industry.

We are passionate about our commitment to customer service and satisfaction.

The beauty and shine captured in our 2008 catalog is only a sampling of the many selections offered year round. For our new collection we have carefully selected jewelry and watches that are characterized by exceptional styling, from the most talented artisans, reflecting current trends while maintaining classic appeal. Many of the companies featured are unique to Windsor; all are among the very finest names in design, quality and craftsmanship.

Last year Windsor Jewelers celebrated our 20th anniversary of serving you with our 20 DAYS OF GIVING. We are proud of our support of local charities and in this season of giving urge you to give to your favorite charity if you have not done so already.

This year we unveiled our new showroom with three times the space, offering our best selections ever in our brand new setting, providing more of what you ask for. We were also again recognized as one of North America's top 70 watch retailers by International Watch magazine—see the article on pages 4 and 5.

We invite you to browse our store, try on your favorites, and let us know what you think. Windsor Jewelers handpicks each of its pieces so that every time a customer leaves with that special ring, watch, bracelet, or pendant, he or she knows they have not just one, but two quality names standing behind their purchase. Whether you are new to our store or one of our many loyal customers, we believe you'll agree that when it comes to quality, selection, service, and satisfaction, Windsor Jewelers truly offers exceptional value.

Sincerely,
